TIME MACHINE

with Mike D.

I still remember it like it was yesterday: the day my father bought his 1972 Plymouth Fury. I felt like we had the best car in the world because it was so beautiful, shiny, and clean. It was an attractive shade of yellow that wasn't so bright and just easy on the eyes, and at times i can still smell that new car smell.

It was a four-door sedan with AM radio, power steering, power brakes, and automatic transmission. My sister and I would go out and clean the car pretty much every day, even the windows and wheels, without our parents asking us to do so.

That Plymouth Fury remains my favorite car because of all of those memories!
